HOREE NOTES.

We have received the entries for the various weepstakes and handicaps that closed on March They all filled well, and the racing prespects or 1873 are as bright as could possibly be wished.

The Fordham Handicap has thirty-eight entries; the Jockey Club Sweepstakes, twenty-six; the Westchester Cup, eighteen, and the Hunter's

Stokes twenty-three. The Saratoga events closed as follows:-Sween stakes for all ages, mile and a quarter, fifteen; Plash Stakes, twenty-nine; Saratoga Cup, fifteen; Sequel Stakes, nineteen; Summer Handicap, twen-ty-six, and sweepstakes for two year-olds, twenty-

We hear from Spring Station, Ky., that Mr. Swigert has sold his brown stallion Captain Jenks, four years old, by Woodford Mambrino, dam Kitty Kirkman, to a gentleman of Evansville, Ind. Mr. Swigert also sold his entire herd of Alderneys to

There have been but two foals dropped at Mr. agless (dam of Gray Planet and Mary Clark) onled a gray filly by Planet February 26, and on farch 4 Little Miss, by Sovereign, dropped a bay fonied a gray filly by Planet February 26, and on March 4 Little Miss, by Sovereign, dropped a bay filly by Australian.

The yearlings at Woodburn are looking well and compare favorably with any let that have bred previously. The brood mares are in good condition, considering that many of them have had severe attacks of the epizotic disease, and the very severe Winter they have passed through.

Old Lexington is in fine spirits, but he has shrunk a great deal the past year. The other stallons are looking well and are in good health.

On March & sixteen head of Shetland ponies were sold at Woodburn stud farm to a circus company. The ponies were of all ages, from weahlings to lour-year-olds, at an average of $156 25 per head. Two of the ponies belonged to Mr. Swigert.

On Tuesday, March 4, James Graham, one of the men engaged at the stud stables at Woodburn, had his neck breken and his brains dashed out by a tree falling on him as he was exercising the famous old racing stallion Planet. The tree, it is stated by those who witnessed the accident, fell on the herse and rider, but, in some annecountable way, Planet escaped without a scratch.

George Fordham, the English jeckey, has won Derby, however.

Kitchener, the English jeckey, weighed but forty correct on the turk. He never won the Epsom Derby, however.

Kitchener, the English jeckey, weighed but forty pounds when he rode Red Deer in the Chester Cup. A feather, truly!

In the flurdle Race Handicap at Doneaster on February 18 Mr. Wilkinson's bay gelding Good Friday fell and broke his neck.

Barney Williams, the racehorse, has been sold by Stewart, of Shelby, Ky., for $1,200.

The stallions George Wilkes and Honest Allen arrived at Ashland Park, Lexington, Ky., on Sunday morning, March 9, in capital condition. The Lexington Datty Fress says:—'It is with pleasure we welcome such stallions to the blue grass region, and we thank Messrs. Z. E. & W. L. Simmons, of New York, for the enterprise of sending such horses here and locating such a splendid stock farm in our midst. We believe it will be a success, and if it is not it will not be for the want of a lavish use of money.
